

We all know about the great freedom fighters, but on the occasion of 75 years of Indian Independence, let's have a look at some of our lesser-known but equally valorous freedom fighters:

Birsa Munda: He was an Indian freedom fighter, religious leader and folk hero, who belongs to the Munda tribe. He was a spearhead behind the Millenarian movement.

Peer Ali Khan: He was an Indian revolutionary who was a book-binder by profession. He used to secretly distribute leaflets, pamphlets and coded messages to freedom fighters. It's a great honour for all us to highlight the contribution of unsung heroes on the occasion of 75 years of Indian Independence.

Jai Hind, Jai Bharat.

His revolution gave rise to several freedom fighters in Bengal. He was the main behind Chittagong Armoury Raid and had 64 revolutionaries along with him. During the Raid, they captured the city and hoisted the Indian national flag declaring Gandhi Raj.

Tirot Singh, 18th century chief of Khasi people had only swords, bows and bows to fight against the British enemy. His death anniversary is commemorated as a state holiday in Meghalaya.

Undung Heroes of Freedom Struggle

Respected Prime Minister of India,

As you know there was a hard struggle of many freedom fighter to liberate India. There were contributions of so many freedom fighters but the Indians only know about some of the prominent names.

The younger generation must have to know more about freedom fighters like Matargini Hazra, Bhikaji Cama, Peer Ali Khan, Kushal Kanwar and so on who were forgotten as part of the ongoing 'AKAM' celebrations.

The government should bring the heroic stories of all those heroes and there lives in front of the people of the country by launching book making short documentaries or with the help of seminars.

I am sure that will help us to know more about our freedom struggle.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to explore our history so deeply.

environment :- friendly India. A good way to start with conserving water driving less, walking more. Planting more trees, and using a battery electric vehical.

clean :- India: As there is a quote "clean people and healthy people can make a wealthy country". I want India as the cleanest country in the world by 2047. By simply throwing the garbage in the bin. not spitting on the streets, and creating less waste I want to achieve my vision clean-India, Healthy :- India :- By 2047, I want to see India as a healthy India, a fit India. For this, I pledge to donate my organs and I also want to encourage other people to do this noble work. So that together we can make India-healthy India.

Corruption :- Free India :- my vision for India is a corruption-free India. If we limit our wants and needs then we can easily make corruption-free India.

I want to contribute these little things for the progress of my beautiful country - to fulfill my vision for 2047 as : HAPPY INDIA.
